Lewis Raggett
Developer

Nice to meet you!

Hi there! I'm a versitile developer and digital designer from Bournemouth with a fantastic work ethic. I'm friendly, co-operative and easy to get along with. I enjoy spending time problem solving when programming to achieve the most efficient solution, When designing, I like to put in a great level of thought and detail into my work to ensure it looks the best it can be.
I look forward to working with you soon!
